

Indianapolis AGA Award Recipient

Indianapolis, IN -- The Defense Finance and Accounting Service, Indianapolis, Association of Government Accountants' Chapter, received the AGA National Community Service Award July 2.

The award was presented during the AGA's Annual Professional Development Conference, in Chicago, in recognition of the chapter's involvement in and commitment to community service. Chapter members supported a wide variety of community efforts throughout Indianapolis including supporting food pantries and holiday dinners for the underprivileged and collecting more than 1,500 pounds of items for finance and accounting soldiers deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Annually, AGA awards recognize individuals and chapters who make significant contributions to the education and training of government financial managers and as well as demonstrating leadership as community leaders in local volunteer activities.
